

This painting is about the fight between two enemies. One side is the good side. And the other side are the bad guys. Or actually this is all reversed? Anyway one side is defending their truth and their values. Their cultural artefacts. Will we let the terrorists win? Or will we give up? Rise, rise for the fight and let's defend ourselves! Proudly.

DĀVIS OZOLS

b. 1992, Latvia

website: <http://d-vis.tumblr.com/>

Education

2008 - 2013	Janis Rozentāls Riga Art High-School
2004 - 2008	Janis Rozentāls Riga Art High-School, finished middle school Art classes
1999 - 2008	Riga Centre Language School, finished elementary and middle school
2013-...	Art Academy of Latvia; Visual arts department; Painting; Second year.

Exhibitions, Competitions

2005	Solo exhibition at Riga Centre Language School
------	--

- 2005 First place at drawing competition "Kaķēns, kas negribēja doties uz jūrasskolu" (Drawing Exhibition at Museum of the Naval Academy)
- 2006 Solo exhibition at Art Gallery "Istaba" (Drawings, graphic artworks)
- 2007 First place at Riga Central District Visual Art Competition for middleschoolers
- 2009 Participated "Bauskas Painting Workshop 2009" + group exhibition at Bauska Museum of Regional Studies and Art
- 2010 Participated "Bauskas Painting Workshop 2010" + group exhibition at Bauska Museum of Regional Studies and Art
- 2011 Participated "Bauskas Painting Workshop 2011" + group exhibition at Bauska Museum of Regional Studies and Art
- 2013 Group exhibition (Photography) "Pārdaugavas 24 sejas"
- 2013 Group exhibition - Diploma painting for graduating Janis Rozentāls Riga Art High-School
- 2014 Solo exhibition at "Kino Šiška" in Slovenia, Ljubljana (Paintings)
- 2015 Participated in "Baltic Illustration" exhibition in Lithuania, Vilnius
- 2015 First illustrated childrens book "Runča Vakariņas"