Ši darbų serija atlikta ant mažo formato drobių. Tapiau atsipalaidavimui, norėdama pailsėti nuo idėjų paieškų, studijų, intelektualumo – po (arba vietoje) darbų. Galima pavadinti tai sekmadienio tapyba. Ilgai sėdėdavau, krapštydavausi ir gilindavausi į detales, susitelkdama į tapybos procesą.

This series of works was done on the small format canvases. I painted for relaxation, while taking a break from the search for ideas, the studies and intellectuality - after (or instead of) work. It could be called Sunday painting. I sat by these works for a long time, scratching and delving into the details, focusing on the painting process.
