"Enter the Žirmūnai"

Paveikslo idėja kilo pakeitus gyvenamąją vietą. Kaštonus po langais iškeitus į pilkesnį blokinių namų peizažą kilo didžiulis ilgesys gamtai. Šiame paveiksle, ir dabartinėje mano kūryboje svarbus ryšys tarp gamtos, bei žmogaus, fiksuojama kelionė link savęs pažinimo.

Svarbus kompozicinis žvilgsnis 'iš viršaus' sukuria sapno, miego, melancholijos, estetiką. Kartu kviesdamas žiūrovą tapti stebėtoju iš įprastai neįmanomo, intymaus, artimesnio rakurso. Dėl įvardintų aspektų vienu iš įkvėpimo šaltinių tampa G. Noe filmas "Enter the Void". Užuominą į jį galima rasti ir paveikslo pavadinime.

Raktiniai mano kūrybos žodžiai yra gamta ir psichologija. Būdama gamtoje tolygiai su miško taku žengiu žingsnius suvokimo link.

"Enter the Žirmūnai"

The idea for the painting came from a change of residence. When chestnuts under the windows were exchanged for a grayer landscape of block houses, there was a great longing for nature. In this painting, and in my current work, the connection between nature and man is important, capturing the journey towards self-knowledge.

An important compositional look 'from above' creates the aesthetics of dream, sleep and melancholy. At the same time inviting the viewer to become an observer from a normally impossible, intimate angle. Due to the named aspects, G. Noe's film "Enter the Void" becomes one of the sources of inspiration. A hint to it can also be found in the title of the painting.

The key words in my work are nature and psychology. Being in nature, gradually along the forest path, I take steps towards perception.
